World of Law: Professor Dane Thorley "How and Why to (Really) Experiment with the Law"

Wednesday, February 24, 2021 | 4-5pm | ZOOM, Register Here

Professor Thorley is an Associate Professor of Law. His research explores how the rules, procedures, and practices currently utilized in the U.S. courtroom impact the behavior of judges, attorneys, and parties and how that behavior then influences the implementation and efficacy of those rules. In exploring these issues, he employs his training as a field experimentalist to conduct empirical evaluations that are both informed by the realities of the legal system and methodologically rigorous. World of Law allows undergraduates to hear BYU Law professors present monthly on a variety of law-related topics and to meet the Dean and Director of BYU Law Admissions. It is also an opportunity for undergraduates to learn about various professional fields opened up by law school and to mingle with like-minded students (virtually).
